

Global Validity

Experience the next level of Global Market Access

What We Do

Global Validity specializes in obtaining mandatory regulatory country certifications in 200 countries and territories. We prioritize project transparency and control by using Access Manager, our 2nd generation certification management platform tech-enabling Global Validity's expert project managers to lead your GMA process with precision.

Our Global Market Access Services

Expert Certification Guidance

Harness in depth knowledge of the certification process and latest country requirements.

Access Manager

Receive complimentary access to our cloud-based, end-to-end certification management platform.

Personalized Project Management

Benefit from a dedicated project manager who provides personalized support and guidance.

Hear from Our Customers

“My teams project capacity has increased significantly due to the automation Access Manager offers.”

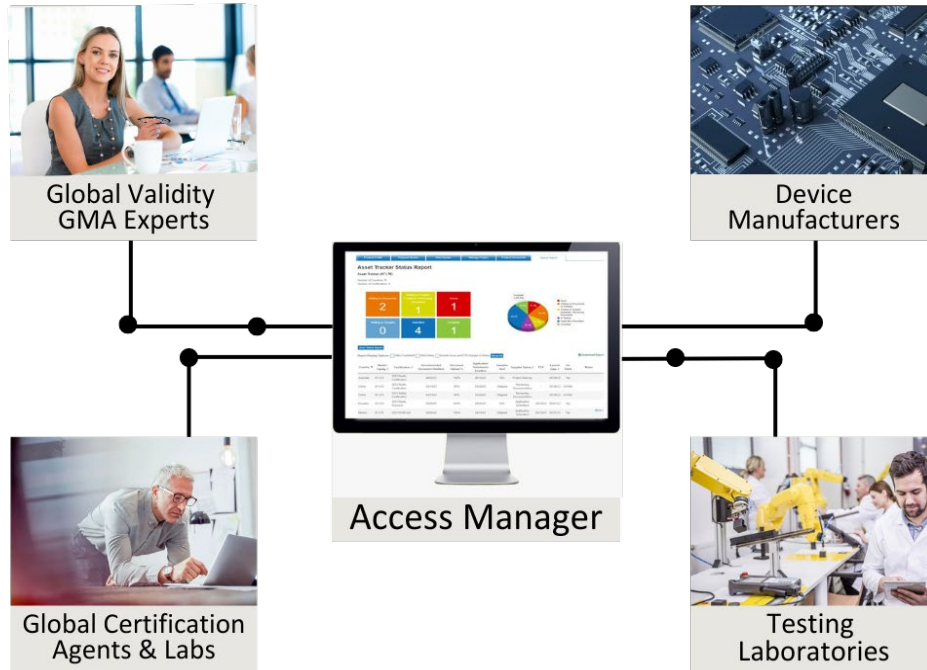

“Global Validity’s project management expertise is by far the best I have experienced. They have total control over our projects and allow us to access the same reports they use, real-time.”

Contact us at support@globalvalidity.com or visit www.globalvalidity.com

Global Validity

Access Manager

Access Manager seamlessly integrates Global Validity's GMA experts, customers, in country certification agents and test labs together into one environment, creating an ecosystem fostering efficient processes, transparency, and project control.

Advantages of Access Manager

Technical File Management

Configurable product document storage with revision management

Live Project Status Report

Document upload progress views, sample shipping updates, real-time application status, verified estimated completion dates, & more

Launch Date Tracking

Customizable country by country certification scheduler to track application milestones ensuring on-time completion

Organized Project Requirements

Verified document, sample, and test requirements with technical review status

Instant Quote Requests

For regulatory certifications in 200+ countries & territories

Certification Management

Exportable reporting features, automated expiration notifications, and instant renewal quote request capability

Contact us at support@globalvalidity.com or visit www.globalvalidity.com